

Fresh Look, Same Weeks at a Glance: WAG Website Updates on the Way!

What: The WAG Website is Getting an Update

Here's what's changing:

- Improved search and filtering for easier access to resources
- Refreshed color palette
- New navigation design with adjusted button placement
- Tabs added to reduce scrolling and streamline page layouts

Here's what's not changing:

- Structure of Lessons and Units remain the same
- Formats for facilitation slides and Student Resources (Microsoft, Google, PDF)
- All current content — plus additional units coming for 2025–2026!

Why: The Reason Behind the Update

- To collect better feedback and data that will improve site performance
- To support future enhancements and features
- To provide a smoother, more functional user experience
- To align more closely with other AVID curricular products

When: The Rollout Timeline

- Summer 2025:
 - Preview version of the updated WAG website becomes available
 - Current WAG website remains available during the transition
- August 1, 2025:
 - Classic WAG officially retires
 - Updated WAG website officially launches
